Secretary	The minutes of the September Intergroup meeting were reviewed and accepted with minor revisions.
Treasurer	The current account balance is $1,992.28. Steve passed around flyers received in the mail.
Jails & Institutions	The Midland County Jail women's meeting, chaired by Rebecca, is reported to be "going fine". The men's jail group has resumed after three weeks off due to a staff vacation. Joe P. asked about juvenile facilities that could use an AA contact. The 1016 house sends a counselor to the Juvenile Care Center on Ashman Rd; Steve will ask whether they would be interested in some AA literature and maybe a younger AA speaker. Bill M. reported that parolees from the prison AA group are being connected with AA contacts when they are released.
Public Information	A newcomer at the Friday night open speaker meeting said he had found it through the AA display ad in the Midland Daily News. The group voted to continue running the ad. Bill M. suggested getting AA information onto the placemats he saw at Shirlene's Cuisine that feature ads for local businesses and organizations. Theron reviewed the Midland AA web site statistics, with 2077 user sessions for September.
Answering Service	No news.
